

I thought by now I would have a list of 2022 tours. But there are still so many “ifs” when planning a tour. Restaurants and venues just can’t assure me of the details of visiting. It is less about Covid and more about staffing and supply chain issues. So, we are just holding back a little and only offering group events that we feel can meet our standards for a great time at a fair price. We need to fill the seats on each tour to get back to an efficient business! Your business and your “marketing” (by sharing with friends and family about us) is truly appreciated.

Safety is always our first concern. We will follow all mandated Covid-19 safety protocols put out by the State of Ohio, the CDC, or the National Transportation Safety Board (motorcoach rules.) Individual venues have the right to also mandate masks or other protocols, which we will abide by. Individuals are welcome to wear masks, even if they are not required by authorities. Our leased motorcoaches will take extra measures for cleanliness. Hand sanitizer will be available.
